Art Unit: 2616

1. Claim 20 is objected to because of the following informalities: The recitation "when searching the channel numbers in lines 7-8 should be deleted since it recited twice. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 23 is objected to because of the following informalities: The recitation "having" in line should be changed to --encoded with--. Appropriate correction is required.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Magana et al (US Pat. # 6,487,418).

Magana et al disclose a channel selector for selecting from a plurality of channels an optimal channel for establishing radio communication incorporating the steps of receiving information from peripheral access point devices, and searching channel numbers used by the peripheral access point devices (20 of fig. 1; 12 of fig. 1; lines 52-59, col. 4); selecting one of the channel numbers except for the used channel numbers, and deciding whether the selected channel number is an optimal channel number (lines 31-41, col. 4); and setting the selected channel number as a channel number when the selected channel number is the optimal channel number (10 of fig. 1).

4. Applicant's arguments filed 10/12/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Regarding claim 23, applicant argued that Magana fails to disclose an access point device to "transmit a probe request frame to the peripheral access point devices" and "receive probe response frames from the peripheral access point devices", or "receive beacon frames from the peripheral access point devices"; to "extract the channel numbers from the received probe response frames", or "extract the channel numbers from the beacon frames"; and to "store the extracted channel numbers"; then to get the optimal channel by increasing and/or decreasing the unused channel numbers. However, the limitations the applicant argued are not found in claim 23.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

6. Claims 24-26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Claims 1,3-8,10-22 are allowed.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to AJIT G. PATEL whose telephone number is 571-272-3140. The examiner can normally be reached on MONDAY- FRIDAY.
